Would any of you do me a favor and please watch a short (6.5 min.) video I made? It contains some very famous preachers saying the most odd things. The odd stuff starts at the 2:00 mark. That would make it only 4.5 minutes of your time.

Here's Some Lion And Lamb Residue I Thought You...

At the end of the 4th preachers statement, notice the caption to the top right. It says one thing, and he quotes another. Go figure...

Go ahead and explain, maybe you will convince me (and others) there even is such an effect. Because I don't believe it, it's more people get mixed up or don't recall things that have been there all along. Just my opinion.

Convinced yet Dave?

Well, it can be a hotbed for demonic and occultist activities. Sort of makes me wanting for another platform. But alas, there is no other with the attention YT receives.

I think YT or FB Live might be more solid.

Hey, any of you folks ever listen to J. Vernon McGee? Check out this very short MP3 clip (just a few seconds) on his study of Isaiah. Tell me what you hear him say.

Have you ever read that in the Bible?

I listened 40 years ago non stop for about 7 years. Used to listen to recordings for years after his death on local radio.

Standing by for the big BOOM. I must be either nuts or a complete heretic. Is that going to be the response?

Now why would you say that Tim?
 Hey, does this sound familiar to you?
 "Renewing Of Your Mind By The Washing Of The Word"
 if so, where is it from?

Two verses quoted together.

This earth was created to last 8000 years. In Genesis 2, the 7th day was a Lord's Day. It was a perfect 1000 years. No seeds sprang up new plants. The sons of God and the animals ate the seeds and fruit and there was no death. That kind of crazy.

Really? There are none that say the elements of what I wrote except:

Romans 12:2 And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind "?", that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God. (KJV) Now why would I put a question mark there? Could it be the question mark should have said "by the washing of the word"?

Ephesians 5:26 That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, (KJV) And again, "washing of water"? What on earth? I don't ever remember these verses as they read today. What do you suppose it means, washing of water?

Paul is quoted in 2 Corinthians that if someone brings us something that's totally apostate, it's OK to just listen to him and, maybe except what he's saying. At least it does now.

How it is today:

2 Corinthians 11:4 For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him. (KJV)

This verse originally said we should bear with Paul, and not the one bringing the apostacy.

How it was:

2 Corinthians 11:4 For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with me. (KJV)

Don't you get it? By the time antichrist shows up in the flesh, his false prophet will have the perfect book to preach out of. Those left behind won't know the difference, because of those of us who are out of here never raised the alarm before we were caught away.

I am trying to sound an alarm, and my brethren refuse to see it. Imagine that. I think someone may have asked me what my motivation was. Well there it is.
