I love brother Piper dearly, but I have to ask, why does he remember things that aren't in the bible tod: <https://youtu.be/jFo4G-GgexY> and https://youtu.be/u1XavlcE\_D4 . These are his words straight from inquiring Christians want to know. Please don't delete this comment and ignore it. Please.

John Piper is absolutely right that a lot of Bible reading is about being reminded of things we already know. We should certainly be expecting to gain new insights, but, for those who have been Christians a long time, the Bible will be reminders.

And this is very necessary because we are so prone to forget!

John Piper is right that reading the Bible fast and slow are both very important. We need to get the big picture, but we also need to take time to ponder a lot of things.

This makes me afraid. I'm afraid that I am not making room for the Holy Spirit and as Pastor John said

St. Paul preached the Bible to make it more and more a reality.

As you read the Bible:

- 1. Pray for the Spirit
- 2. Look to Jesus
- 3. Slow down and meditate on some things that stick out...
